This waiver is in addition to the "Acknowledgement of Risk" form and outlines risks involved with lead climbing and/or not wearing a helmet, as well as general guidelines that must be adhered to by climbers using the gym. Climbers must recognize and assume all hazards of risk and inherent dangers associated with climbing activities.

- * All climbers are required to demonstrate their knowledge of safety and belaying techniques and procedures to a gym employee via a certification test. Instructional classes are offered at the gym.
- * All climbers and individuals entering the climbing area must sign in at the front desk. Their membership status and certifications will be checked there.
- * No loose chalk, food or drinks (except water) is allowed in the climbing area.
- * All personal climbing gear must be manufactured and designed for climbing and in good condition. Personal harnesses must also fit properly.
- * No top rope climbing on a single bolt anchor, always two or more anchors must be used.
- * The gym provides top ropes that are inspected regularly.
- * The gym does not provide lead ropes. Lead climbers must bring their own dynamic ropes, which must be UIA approved. The gym is not responsible for the care or inspection of a lead climber's rope. Climbers must understand that textured holds, textured walls, and the protection at the gym are all abrasive to ropes.

- * Climbers will tie into the rope with a figure eight knot. All carabiners used for belaying or floor anchors will be locking. Anchor slings and non locking carabiners will be doubled.
- * All climbers are recommended to check with a qualified medical physician prior to starting a new exercise program like climbing.
- * Belaying Guidelines are:

 - Ages 12 and 13 will only be allowed to belay with a GriGri and a gym employee supervising.

- * No one under the age of 14 is allowed to lead climb or lead belay unless it is in a class setting and backed up with a top rope belay. Persons 14 and older are allowed to lead climb and/or lead belay after demonstrating proper skills in a certification test.
